2021 Market Highlights

Summary

After a tumultuous 2020, 2021 saw initial steps in the path to recovery. Optimism about the Covid-19 vaccine rollout, the re-opening of many economies, a low-interest environment, a recovery of consumer demand, and a massive fiscal stimulus package in the U.S., were some of the elements that contributed to volatility subsidizing and stock markets reaching new highs. But there were many significant negative shocks too. In the second part of the year, gas prices spiked, supply chains were disrupted, and the world scrambled for scarce supplies. In November, the arrival and subsequent rapid spread of the new Covid variant, Omicron, brought additional uncertainty to the markets. The year ended with increasing inflation pressures, the U.S. central bank starting scaling back bond purchases, the prospect of rising interest rates, and an escalation in geo-political tensions. All in all, however, our data shows a positive end of year for stock and derivative markets, with market capitalization, trading volumes, and capital raised through IPOs reaching record levels.

Key Indicators

Equities

- Domestic market capitalisation went up 16.6% compared to the end of December 2020, surpassing 123 trillion USD. In March alone the increase was of 4.91 trillion USD.

Chart 1: Market capitalisation

In 2021, the Electronic Order Book (EOB) value traded went up significantly, due to increased activity in the Americas (12.4%) and APAC (29.3%), while EMEA declined 4.5%.

The three exchanges with the highest YoY growth in value traded were: Latin American Stock Exchange (Latinex) (235.9%), Dhaka Stock Exchange (183.1%) and Palestine Exchange (120.2%). The three exchanges with the highest annual value traded were: NYSE (11.2%), Nasdaq - US (11.6%) and Shenzhen Stock Exchange (24%).

Volumes traded followed the same pattern, with APAC region recording 31.1% more trades, the Americas 5%, while in EMEA the number of trades went down 3.4% compared to 2020.

The three exchanges with the highest YoY growth in volumes were: Hanoi Stock Exchange (361.5%), Indonesia Stock Exchange (97.2%) and Dhaka Stock Exchange (95.6%). The three exchanges with the highest annual volume were: Shenzhen Stock Exchange (30.3%), Shanghai Stock Exchange (51.7%) and Korea Exchange (19.5%).

All regions experienced an increase in the number of listed companies. The Americas rose the most (10.2%), followed by EMEA (5.7%) and APAC (4.1%).

Of the 51,632 companies listed in December 2021, 11,229 were listed on American markets, 24,672 in APAC and 15,731 in EMEA.

The three exchanges with the highest YoY growth were: Moscow Exchange (166.5%), Baku Stock Exchange (115.4%) and Bulgarian SE (49.4%). The three exchanges with most listed companies at the end of 2021 were: Japan Exchange Group (1.8%), Nasdaq - US (25.4%) and TMX Group (3.2%).

The number of IPOs increased a significant 74.2% in 2021 compared to 2020, but the average size of an IPO increased only 3.5% to 186 million USD (from 179.7 million USD).

The increase in number of IPOs was due to all regions listing more IPOs: the Americas by 137.4%, APAC by 31.9% and EMEA region by 155.7%.

In the last five years, 2021 is the year with the highest number of IPOs listed (2,678) with all regions recording their highest: the Americas (679), APAC (1,278) and EMEA region (721).

The three exchanges with the highest YoY growth were: Borsa Istanbul (550%), NYSE (526.1%) and Colombo Stock Exchange (500%). The three exchanges with most IPOs in 2021 were: Nasdaq - US (73.4%), NYSE and Shanghai Stock Exchange (6.4%).

However, the average size of an IPO decreased in 2021 in each region compared to 2020: in the Americas and APAC only marginally, by 0.4% (to 321.5 million USD/IPO) and by 0.7% (to 150.1 million USD/IPO), respectively, with EMEA region recording a sharp 8% drop (to 122.1 million USD/IPO).

The average size of an IPO had a 0.9% uptick in the last quarter of the year compared to Q3 2021. While the Americas and EMEA regions witnessed bigger IPOs, by 12.9% (to 304.6 million USD/IPO) and 31.6% (to 115.9 million USD/IPO), respectively, APAC region hosted significantly smaller ones, by 10.8% (to 146.7 million USD/IPO).
All regions increased significantly: the Americas more than doubled (155.3%), APAC (50.9%), while EMEA region went up more than fivefold (583.5%).

APAC was the preferred region for 1,871 non-IPO listings, which represents 69% share, followed by EMEA with 581 (21% share) and the Americas region with 263 (10% share).

The three exchanges with the highest YoY growth were: Bulgarian SE (3,580%), LSE London Stock Exchange (3,500%) and Euronext (2,966.7%). The three exchanges with the highest number of non-IPO listings in 2021 were: Shanghai Stock Exchange (48.9%), Bulgarian SE and Euronext.

In 2021 the investment flows through IPO totalled 498.1 billion USD. This performance was due to all regions going up: the Americas 136.4%, EMEA 135.2%, which are the highest yearly increases in the last five years, and APAC 31%. Most of the investment was made on American markets (44% share), followed closely by APAC (39% share) and EMEA region (18% share).

The three exchanges with the highest YoY growth were: The Egyptian Exchange (3,816.7%), NZX Limited (2,755.6%) and Borsa Istanbul (1,485.5%). The three exchanges with the highest capital raised through IPOs in 2021 were: NYSE (251.3%), Nasdaq - US (71.8%) and Shanghai Stock Exchange (11.4%).
In the second half of the year, November 2021 was the month with the highest inflows (48.2 billion USD), due in part to Nasdaq – US (80.7% MoM increase) and NSE India (1,091% MoM increase).

Investment flows through already listed companies rose 30.9% in 2021 compared to 2020, totalling 854.60 billion USD.

This increase was due to all regions going up: the Americas 56.8%, APAC 7.2% and EMEA region 55.4%.

Most of the investment flows took place on APAC markets (42% share), followed by EMEA (33% share) and the Americas region (25% share).

The three exchanges with the highest YoY growth were: Bolsa de Comercio de Santiago (2,699.3%), Athens Stock Exchange (1,985.6%) and Colombo Stock Exchange (1,003.4%). The three exchanges with the highest capital raised through already listed companies were: NYSE (0.9%), Shenzhen Stock Exchange (46.1%) and Euronext (29.8%).

Exchange-traded funds (ETFs)

In 2021 the number of listed ETFs and value traded fell 5.2% and 8.6%, respectively, while volumes increased 9.3% compared to 2020.

The result in ETF listings is due to the decline of the Americas region (28.3%), while APAC and EMEA regions went up 22.1% and 9.8%.

The fall in value traded was caused by the decrease in the Americas and EMEA regions, by 10.2% and 2.1%, respectively, while APAC region went up 3.7%. The Americas is the favourite market by far (85% share of value traded), followed by APAC and EMEA regions, with 11% and 4% share, respectively.

The number of trades in ETFs more than doubled in EMEA (170.1%), while APAC rose by 28.9% and the Americas region declined 8.6%.

In terms of volumes, the Americas remains the market with the biggest share (59%), followed by APAC (29%) and EMEA (12%).

Notable IPOs

Americas
The 679 IPOs hosted by American markets in 2021 generated 218.28 billion USD into its economy, up from 92.33 billion USD in 2020. This excellent result was possible thanks to some remarkable IPOs.
In July Nasdaq welcomed Robinhood Markets Inc, an online brokerage company with a stock trading and investing application, which raised 2.09 billion USD; in September Ollaplex Holdings Inc, a hair care products manufacturer (1.55 billion USD) and Freshworks Inc, a software company (1.03 billion USD). In October the same exchange hosted the chipmaker GlobalFoundries Inc for 2.59 billion USD. The most valuable IPO in the second half of the year was Rivian Automotive Inc, which designs and manufactures electric vehicles, raising 11.93 billion USD in November on Nasdaq. In December Hashi Corp Inc, a leader in multi-cloud infrastructure automation software, chose the same venue to go public, raising 1.22 billion USD. TMX Group was the exchange of choice for Definity Financial Corp, a Canadian insurer, raising 1.26 billion USD in November.

APAC
APAC markets welcomed an impressive 1,278 IPOs in 2021 raising 191.79 billion USD, up from 146.38 billion USD in 2020. In July ASX Australian Securities Exchange listed Pexa Group Ltd, an online property exchange, for 862.79 million USD and in October G GG Partners Inc, a global equities manager, for 893.26 million USD. Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing opened its doors for two electric vehicle makers: XPeng Inc (2.06 billion USD) and Li Auto (1.73 billion USD). The same exchange was chosen by Dongguan Rural Commercial Bank Co Ltd in September for its 1.17 billion USD listing.
The first Indonesian unicorn, the e-commerce company Bukalapak Com Tbk, raised in August 1.54 billion USD on Indonesia Stock Exchange. This was the venue of choice for the Indonesian telecommunications company Dayamitra Telekomunikasi Tbk which raised 1.31 billion USD in November (making it the second Indonesian unicorn). Korea Stock Exchange welcomed in August Krafton Inc, a video game company, for 3.72 billion USD and KakaoBank Corp, a South Korean digital lender (2.20 billion USD), while in November it listed KakaoPay Corp, South Korea's largest online payment service, for 1.29 billion USD. National Stock Exchange of India was chosen by Zomato Ltd, an online food service platform, to go public for 1.26 billion USD and in November by One 97 Communications Ltd, a “mobile-first” digital payments platform to enable cashless payments (2.44 billion USD). Shanghai Stock Exchange hosted in August the region’s biggest H2 2021 IPO China Telecom Corp Ltd (8.38 billion USD) and Shanghai Rural Commercial Bank Co Ltd (1.33 billion USD), while in December Beigene Ltd, a cancer treatment specialist, raised 3.48 billion USD on the same platform.

EMEA
In 2021 EMEA listed 721 IPOs raising 88.06 billion USD, up from 37.44 billion USD in 2020. Acciona Energia, a renewable energy company, chose BME Spanish Exchanges in July for increasing its capital by 1.89 billion USD. This is the largest IPO in Spain in the last 6 years and the largest European renewable energy IPO in the last 5 years.
LSE London Stock Exchange welcomed two private equity firms: Bridgepoint Group Plc, listed in July for 1.10 billion USD and PetersHill Partners Plc in October (1.39 billion USD). Nasdaq was preferred by Volvo Car Ab, the region’s most valuable IPO in H2 2021, which raised 2.32 billion USD in October. In the same month Nasdaq listed Storskogen Group Ab, an investment company (1.52 billion USD). Saudi Exchange (Tadawul) welcomed in October International Company For Water And Power Projects raising 1.21 billion USD, while in December it listed its own shares (Saudi Tadawul Group Holding Co) for 1.01 billion USD.

Summary of the methodologies adopted for this report

All data contained in the following equity market tables include the Main/Official market and the Alternative/SME markets supervised and regulated by the Exchange.

Domestic Market Capitalisation
The market capitalisation figures include:
- shares of listed domestic companies;
- shares of foreign companies which are exclusively listed of an exchange, i.e. the foreign company is not listed on any other exchange;
- common and preferred shares of domestic companies;
- shares without voting rights.

The market capitalisation figures exclude:
- collective investment funds;
- rights, warrants, ETNs, convertible instruments;
- options, futures;
- foreign listed shares other than exclusively listed ones;
- companies whose only business goal is to hold shares of other listed companies, such as holding companies and investment companies, and regardless of their legal status;
- companies admitted to trading (companies admitted to trading are companies whose shares are traded at the exchange but not listed at the exchange).

- Australian Securities Exchange: including investment funds.
- BME Spanish Exchanges: including investment companies listed (open-end investment companies) that differ from investment funds included in Table 1.3 because of their legal status and that cannot be distinguished from other listed companies.
- Bolsa de Valores de Lima: Includes 26 foreign companies with shares negotiated under a special modality.
- Borsa Istanbul: market capitalisation/listed companies figures include investment companies and holdings.
- Deutsche Börse: excluding the market segment “Freiverkehr” (unofficial regulated market).
- Euronext: includes Belgium, Ireland, France, Italy the Netherlands, Norway and Portugal.
- Johannesburg Stock Exchange: figures include the market capitalisation of all listed companies, but exclude listed warrants, convertibles and investment funds.
- Korea Exchange: including Kosdaq market data.
- NSE India: including market data from NSE’s SME platform “EMERGE”
- Singapore Exchange: market capitalisation includes domestic listings and a substantial number of foreign listings, defined as companies whose principal place of business is outside Singapore. Inactive secondary foreign listings are excluded.
- TMX Group: includes companies listed on TSX Venture.
